

Discovery Bay Wine List

White Wine

House Chardonnay (Chilean)

A racy little wine produced without any oak but plenty of flavour. Delicious on it's own or with just about any dish.

£12.95 per bottle

Tivento Tribu Viognier (Argentinean)

Peaches, apricots and a dash of nutmeg all wrapped up with some lovely fresh acidity.

£13.95

San Vigilio Pinot Grigio (Italian)

Exactly what you would expect from a good Pinot Grigio. Lean elegant but with the added bonus of flavour.

£13.95

Artesa Wine Rioja (Spanish)

White Rioja used to be a bit fuddy-duddy but nowadays it's got a whole new lease of life in the form of this lively. Perfect with seafood.

£14.95

Rose Wine

House Rose Pinot Grigio

A fresh wine that is slightly fruity with a dry, light and pleasantly sourish taste

£13.95

Discovery Beach White Zinfandel (USA)

A sweeter rose with wonderfully fresh flavours and cream soda hints.

£14.95

Frontera Merlot Rose (Chilean)

Full flavoured rose with a beautiful creamy texture and a lovely weight of fruit.

£13.95

Ancora Pinot Grigio Rose (Italian)

Off-dry and lighter style of rose which is dangerously easy drinking, you have been warned.

£14.95

Red Wines

House Merlot (Chilean)

Absolutely wonderful wine, this is one of those wines that once you try it you'll fall head over heels in love with it, so what are you waiting for?

£12.95

McGuigans Black Label (Australian)

Ridiculously easy drinking and oh so fruity red, once you tried it isn't hard to see why it's so popular.

£14.95

Vignobles du Sud Cabernet Sauvignon (French)

A lighter style of Cabernet from the South of France with mid weight blackcurrant softness a lovely glass of wine.

£13.95

Soldiers Block Shiraz (Australian)

Rich dark bramble fruit with a chocolatey texture and a hint of pepper. This is exactly what a heart warming Aussie red should be like, a real beauty.

£14.95
